Rotary Golf Day

Another successful Rotary Charity Golf Day. Played in perfect weather, many local businesses submitted teams & had a fun day playing golf. Pictured at the 5th Tee - Elizabeth Fielding, Bob Cleland, Sam Openshaw, Terry Crossley & Glenda Barber - manned the traditional Rotary BBQ & offered 'yum sausages & buns' to the golfers. Meanwhile Paul Trevillion & Kerry Medway challenged the golfers to back themselves to land on the green. The golfers were very generous in donating over $400 & won a few winning tickets for the club raffle.

Thanks to Col Pickering & Ray White for getting sponsors & Col for organising the PMQ Golf Club to host our golf day. Thanks also to the PMQ Golf Club for its support for the day. Thanks also to Elizabeth Fielding for organising the BBQ & volunteers.

We are expecting to raise $4000, most of which will be presented to the PMQ Marine Rescue at the Golf Day Dinner at the PMQ Golf Club on October 31st.

The two Phils (Perry & Brown). Phil Perry dug so many divots. He managed a hole in his head from banging it on the golf buggy!!!! Phil Brown had a funny hat on that drew attention to some Rugby League team called 'the bunnies'!

Elizabeth Fielding earned a fine when next we have a 'fine session' at Rotary when she tried to serve some mustard. She squeezed & shook the bottle & almost jumped on it, only to discover she hadn't taken the sealed cap off the bottle!!!
O Elizabeth - get your dollar ready!!!

Public Speaking

Another inspiring evening with three great young speakers - Charlie Martin - MALE ACTIVISM; Bonnie Rudd - EQUALITY; & Kyden Power-O'Toole - INDIFFERENCE. All three speakers based their talks on Rotary's 4-Way test.

Toastmaster Judges - Jenny Horn & Wiphapharr (Pa) Jiaoram felt all three speakers were winners as all did so well. However Charlie Martin was the winner & will go on to compete in the Regional Finals later this year.

Well done to all students & the judges.

Quotation of the week -
