Sam's Natty Knitters & Crocheters

Well done Natty Knitters & Crocheters

On Monday the 30th November "Sam's Natty Knitters & Crocheters" made a trip down to Rainbow Flat South of Port Macquarie. Sam was told by Outreach Inc. that there were 60 - 70 families there that had been affected by the bushfires during 2019/2020. At least 6 homes had been totally destroyed, some with no Insurance and were living in tin sheds or Caravans & had lost everything. The "Natty Knitters & Crocheters" decided to help out and donate everything they had stockpiled, Scarves, Beans, Rugs, Crochet Bags, Crocheted clothes hangers, Crocheted Tea Towels, just to name a few. We also donated toys for any children and provided Christmas Gifts for the Adults, we also donated Shoes, Clothes, Linen, & a Dinnerware set. We were met by the RFS & a Lady from Outreach Inc and were presented with 2 Certificates in Appreciation for what we had done.

Prior to going South, Sam made delivery of a tub of Beans to Port Macquarie Base Hospital for distribution to the Surgical Ward 2B as the patients there were really feeling cold with the air conditioning.

Note these Dates - in your diary -

- February 4-5-6 - Touch Football car parking
- March 12 - 14, 2021 - District 9650

- This will be our final club bulletin for 2020. Thanks for those who have expressed appreciation of the Port Wheel coming out almost each week. Our first bulletin will be out in late January in time for the first official meet on January 27th... Kerry
